UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

FREDERICK N. BURGNER,

Plaintiff,

-against-

UNION PACIFIC CORPORATION,

Defendant.

SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Demand for Jury Trial

Case No.: 5:07-cv-05160-HRL

Plaintiff, by his attorneys, for his complaint against the defendant, alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action for damages due to employment discrimination in violation of the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), 38 U.S.C. § 4301, et seq.

Exhibit "A"

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction is conferred on this Court pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 4323(b)(3).

3. Venue. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 4323(c)(2) because defendant maintains a place of business in this District.

4. Intradistrict Assignment. Assignment to the San Jose Division is proper pursuant to Civil Local Rule 3-2 (c) and (e) of this Court because this action arises in the County of Santa Clara.

THE PARTIES

5. Plaintiff is an individual residing in the County of Santa Clara, State of California.

6. Upon information and belief, defendant is a Utah corporation that maintains a place of business in the County of Santa Clara, State of California.

7. In the alternative, defendant is a California corporation that maintains a place of business in the County of Santa Clara, State of California.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

[Discrimination against Persons who Serve in the Uniformed Services - 38 U.S.C. § 4311(a)]

8. Plaintiff repeats the allegations of paragraphs “1” through “7” of this complaint as if fully set forth herein.

9. Plaintiff has been a member of the United States Army Reserves since (“Army Reserves”) since in or about July 1984.

10. In or about September 2003, plaintiff commenced employment with defendant in the position of trainman.

11. In or about July 2004, plaintiff was mobilized with the Army Reserves.

12. Plaintiff returned to work with defendant on April 29, 2005. His position was still that of trainman.

13. While plaintiff was mobilized, several employees of defendant who were junior to plaintiff on the trainman's seniority roster were promoted into engine service.

14. On May 9, 2005, plaintiff requested promotion into engine service but was told he would have to wait for the next bid.

15. It was not until in or about August 2005 that plaintiff was permitted to apply for and was accepted into engine service. However, defendant then further delayed plaintiff's entry into engine service training.

16. Thereafter, plaintiff filed a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor, Veterans' Employment and Training Service (DOL – VETS) regarding defendant's failure to provide plaintiff with his full employment rights under USERRA.

17. It was not until after plaintiff contacted DOL – VETS that plaintiff was permitted by defendant to start engine service training.

18. Plaintiff successfully completed engine service training and was given an engine service assignment.

19. Notwithstanding the foregoing, defendant failed to assign plaintiff the seniority position in engine service that he would have attained but for his absence due to military service.

20. Although plaintiff notified defendant of its failure to assign plaintiff the proper seniority in engine service and demanded that the situation be corrected, defendant failed and refused to do so.

21. As a result of the failure and refusal of defendant to properly adjust plaintiff's seniority, plaintiff has suffered a loss of pay, loss of preferred job assignments and other rights and benefits determined by seniority.

22. Therefore, plaintiff continued to pursue his complaint against defendant with DOL – VETS.

23. By letter dated July 5, 2007, DOL – VETS informed defendant that it was referring plaintiff's case to the U.S. Attorney General's Office for consideration of legal action.

24. By reason of the foregoing, defendant discriminated against plaintiff in violation of 38 U.S.C. § 4311(a) by denying plaintiff promotion, and/or benefits of employment on the basis of his membership, performance of service and/or obligation to perform service in the United States Army Reserves, a uniformed service.

25. Defendant's violation of 38 U.S.C. § 4311(a) is willful.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Acts of Reprisal – 38 U.S.C. § 4311(b))

26. Plaintiff repeats the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "23" of this complaint as if fully set forth herein.

27. Plaintiff commenced this action against defendant by filing a complaint on October 9, 2007.

28. On or about November 8, 2007, defendant issued plaintiff a written warning for a rules violation regarding the alleged failure to do a proper brake check on a train. Plaintiff gave written acknowledgement of receipt of this warning.

29. Upon information and belief, the issuance and acknowledgement of a written warning normally constitutes the end of the disciplinary process for a particular alleged rules violation. However, in this case, defendant proceeded further against plaintiff and issued a notice of investigation, which triggered the scheduling of a formal hearing.

30. The formal hearing was held on November 14, 2007.

31. By letter dated November 21, 2007, defendant notified plaintiff that his employment was terminated, effective immediately.

32. Upon information and belief, defendant's usual policy and practice is that where one member of a train crew commits a rules violation, all members of that crew are subject to the same disciplinary procedures. However, in this case, plaintiff was the only member of his three-man train crew who received a notice of investigation in connection with the alleged rules violation.

33. Therefore, plaintiff is the only member of his three-man train crew whose employment was terminated for this rules violation.

34. Plaintiff was treated disparately and subjected to additional disciplinary procedures and termination of employment because he made a complaint to defendant, filed a complaint with DOL – VETS against defendant and filed a complaint in this Court against defendant, all seeking to enforce his rights under USERRA.

35. By reason of the foregoing, defendant has discriminated against plaintiff in violation of 38 U.S.C. § 4311(b) by taking an adverse employment action against plaintiff because plaintiff has taken actions to enforce a protection afforded him under USERRA and exercised a right provided for in USERRA.

36. Defendant's violation of 38 U.S.C. § 4311(b) is willful.

PLAINTIFF DEMANDS A JURY TRIAL AS TO ALL ISSUES PRESENTED BY THIS ACTION

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment as follows:

- (1) For such relief under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act as is determined to be appropriate after trial, including but not limited to reinstatement of employment, loss of wages and benefits pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 4323(d)(i)(B), liquidated damages pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 4323(d)(i)(C) and reasonable attorney's fees, expert witness fees and other litigation expenses pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 4323(h)(2); and
- (2) For such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate, including the costs and disbursements of this action.
